

The FCC should serve the public, rather than private industry, interest. The public interest is best served by diverse ownership of media, rather than the consolidation of ownership by fewer and fewer entities.

I oppose any rule change that may lead to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.